*FEATURING
PIANIST, COMPOSER, TEACHER*

Maurizio Najt

Maurizio was born in Milan, Italy and raised in Argentina where he graduated at piano and composition at the Conservatorio Nacional de Música in Buenos Aires. He played an important role as a tango pianist in the New York tango renaissance and has played at Teatro Colón de Buenos Aires, on tour in Japan and Korea, and in multiple venues in the U.S. including New York, Chicago, DC, and Philadelphia. He has performed and toured with Forever Tango, and he is currently the pianist with Astoria Tango Orchestra, directed by the legendary Daniel Binelli who played with Pugliese and Piazzolla.
