

Red Bank Tango welcomes Guest Teachers Adriana Salgado and Orlando Reyes!

Adriana Salgado and Orlando Reyes have been professional dancers and teachers of Argentine Tango for twenty years. With background in classical ballet, they went to study Tango in Buenos Aires under auspices of renowned tango masters. They have taught and performed around the world including in Argentina and in their native Colombia.

Their teaching focuses on the subtleties of the connection, embrace, and strong technique fundamentals. Their passion, love and constant dedication for Tango is palpable and has won them recognition with awards at home where they have been acclaimed as one of the best representative couples of Colombia.

They currently teach and coach privately at Stepping out Studios and Adelante Studios in Manhattan and perform at the most important tango events in New York and New Jersey.
